Koyaanisqatsi 2/3

9.05 – 9.25

Little Peace of Mine (Last minute booking)

A film about a 13-year-old boy who wanted to make peace with Palestinian children. The movie tells the story of their movement and its ups and downs. There is no happy end because the movement falls apart but on the other hand he becomes very close friends with a Palestinian girl and they begin to understand each other and each other's problems.

Eyal Avnerif, Israel

9.30 – 9.50

Five Minutes From Home

The Jerusalem Airport: Once an international place, where Palestinians were able to travel freely abroad. Today, it's a huge military checkpoint. This is a film about the past and today's Palestinian reality that is marked by forgetfulness

Nahed Awwad and Nicolas Wadimoff, aKka Films, Switzerland and Palestine

9.55 – 10.15

Play Me Allegro – an optimistic borderline story

4 km from Gaza, kibbutz Nir-Am is located on the border between Israel & the Palestinian Authority. In spite of Israeli missiles & helicopter soaring above their heads, and Palestinian rockets falling in their yard, Julia, a Russian immigrant, and her 5 years old daughter, choose not to give up

Alon Alsheich, Independent director, Israel

Eran Yehezkel, Independent DOP, Israel

10.20 – 10.40
